MOOSE JAW.

—Rev. Mr. Nichols, incumbent of St. John's church here, has been absent this week. He is being ordained priest.

—The bazaar held last Tuesday by the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church in Ballamy's hall was a success, the receipts having been $170.

—The dam that is being constructed by the C. P. R. company over the Moose Jaw creek here will be a substantial affair. It is to be twelve feet in height. Stone is being brought from the west for it.

—The railway mail clerks running east of this have recently had their run extended from Virden to Brandon, and their number increased by the addition of Mr. La Mothe, formerly doing duty between Winnipeg and Virden.

—The resignation as station-master of G. C. Rudd, sent in some time ago, took effect on the 15th inst. He is succeeded by G. L. Sherlock, who is well known here, as he has temporarily officiated in that and other capacities at this point.

—The law office of W. Grayson, has this week been moved further up Main street. Colpitt's butcher shop, which formerly stood north of it, at present stands on Main street. The store built, and for a time occupied by Hunter & Bell, is being moved from River street to the vacancy thus made, when Colditt's building will be placed between it and Miss Clarke's millinery shop.

MOOSOMIN.

—J. R. Neff is mentioned as a likely candidate for the next election for member for Northwest council.

—The Masons annual ball will be held in the music hall on the evening of St. John's day, the 27th inst.

—Thomas Bobier, farmer, leaves in a few days for the east. He goes to southwestern Ontario for a few months on immigration work for the Canadian Pacific railway.

—The doubts previously expressed regarding the safety of the man Rushbrook become more and more confirmed. The return of the scout sent in search of him, leaves no doubt that Mr. Rushbrook has met with death by exposure on the plains. No traces whatever have yet been found, and the country to the south east of Cannington, where he is supposed to be, is of such a rough character that any trace of him can only be discovered by accident. What has become of the team and the wagon, no one can tell at present.

—Christmas cards at your own prices at THE PROGRESS store.

A strong moral reaction is in progress at Donald, B. C. J. K. Richie, the dancing-house man, has been sent up for trial on the charge of rape, and it is intended to press the case. Petitions are also being circulated for the closing of all dance houses.

MERRY CHRISTMAS.

At this time of the year there is general rejoicing all over Christendom. The occasion is the anniversary of the birth of the Babe in Bethlehem, when the angels of heaven proclaimed in the hearing of inhabitants of the earth, "Peace on earth, good will to men." The event was then an occasion for rejoicing and the light of nineteen centuries shows the great benefits to mankind that have since resulted. The blessings of Christianity are extending to all parts of the world, and every friend of civilization cannot fail to entertain feelings of joy and good will at this Cristmas tide, on account of the mercies of a beneficent Father in providing a ransom for a fallen race. That all its reader may have a happy Christmas and a bright new year is the sincere wish of the Qu'Appelle Progress.

The Regina Journal has mistaken our reference to its political views for an insinuation respecting its proprietorship, whether sincerely or for the purpose of ignoring the indication of its extreme political bias is lost known to its editor. The public is not concerned about the proprietorship of a newspaper, it is the matter it contains that they are interested in, and an editor must be extremely touchy in a personal sense to fly off the handle everytime he imagines an insinuation about the proprietorship of his paper.

Mr. W. D. Perley, M. P., for East Assiniboia, has been at Ottawa, and is on his way back. Regina sent a delegation to Ottawa to try to get the experimental farm located there and also for other matters. Indian Head sent Mr. Robt. Crawford, M.N.W.C., with Mr. Angus McNay, to get the farm there, and Mr. Perley went down to look after the interests of his constituents in general.

Calgary Tribune: There seems to be every likelihood that the Dominion Government will extend some form of territorial autonomy to the Northwest at the approaching session of Parliament. We do not believe that the full powers of a local Provincial Government will be given with all the ex ensive concomitants attached thereto. And we think this is wise, because local government of a local world mean little more than the very doubtful luxury of taxing ourselves. The arrangement will likely be one by which the territorial delegates will be allowed to select probably three of their number to form a sort of advisory board with the Lieutenant-Governor in carrying out the laws of the country, and the expenditure of such funds as are voted for the use of the subjects as council may establish.

Correspondence.

To the Editor of the Progress,—

Sir: I notice in your impression of the 10th inst., an article on Anglican assumption in the Northwest, in which the writer refers to remarks made by Bishop Anson at Christ Church Settlement, Nov. 8th. I have only just seen your paper, eighteen days after publication, and perhaps I am somewhat late in the field. I should nevertheless esteem it a favor to be allowed to suggest that Bishop Anson does not look upon the Anglican Communion as The Catholic Church but as a true Branch of the Catholic Church; and at the same time to quote John Wesley's own words in his published works, vol. ii, page 23, quoting the 19th article of the Church of England, he goes on: "According to this account, the Church of England is that body of faithful people or holy believers in England, among whom the pure Word of God is preached and the sacrament duly administered." John Wesley certainly considered formal separation from that Church unlawful. Works vol. vi, page 77. In his works, vol. i, page 381, as regards his ministerial office, he claimed to act "By the authority of Jesus Christ conveyed to him by the Archbishop of Canterbury when he laid his hands upon me and said 'Take thou authority to preach the Gospel' and in vol. ii, page 329 he writes "We believe it would not be right for us to administrate either Baptism or the Lord's Supper unless we had a commission so to do from those Bishops whom we apprehend to be in succession from the apostles." From this we are bound to infer that if he did not believe in an "uninterrupted succession" yet that he did hold with Bishop Anson that Anglican orders have an unbroken continuity from the first days of Christianity. When John Wesley said "the uninterrupted succession was a fable which no man can prove," he was in controversy with a Romish priest who had asserted the necessity of such an uninterrupted succession from the apostles. And Wesley's assertion is an obvious fact. But Wesley himself admits that he used this argument, not as touching the merits of the case, but merely to silence his adversary by showing that what his opponent stated to be essential to the existence of a church, the Church of Rome itself did not possess, viz., a succession free of interruption. Such interruptions, however, in the episcopate of any particular see, in no way affect the doctrine of Apostolic Succession, said it is worthy of remark that Lord Macaulay, the historographer, who was by no means overmuch of a churchman, was able to repeat by heart the list of Bishops from Linus, the first Bishop of Rome, A. D. 66, down to Dr. Howley, who was Archbishop of Canterbury, A. D., 1828, and Macauley used to say that "whatever may be the doctrine there can be no question of the historical truth."

What the writer in the "Christian Guardian" means by the Greek Church having no organized connection with the Roman Church I don't know, and as it does not, seem to have anything to do with his reproving Bishop Anson for want of Christ an courtesy, it is quite outside the purpose of your's faithfully,

PERSEVERANS.

England, Nov. 28th, 1887.

IMPOTENT IMPUDENCE.

Rev. Phillips Brooks is not only one of the most accomplished and eloquent preachers in the world, but is also a man of great catholicity of spirit and broad common sense. At the Protestant Episcopal Church Congress at Louisville two weeks ago, the old question of the proposed change in the name of the Church was brought forward. Several speeches were made, and among others Dr. Brooks expressed himself thus: "The parties who are anxious for change in the name have only one aim, and that is, they wish in some way or another to take some name that absolutely declares that we are the only Church in America. The Evangelistic, the Catholic, Methodists in the Church could not do not believe this, the Church does not teach it, it cannot be found in the Scriptures. We do not believe in Apostolic succession. We recognize the leading of the Spirit, and do not believe it is necessary to trace everything back to history. We are told that a change of name would enlarge the Church. We need enlargement—we are a little thing; but the enlargement we need is to find the truth of Jesus Christ in the Bible to discern a deeper spirituality; this is the "enlargement" we need. What keeps our Church away from the American people is, that it copies too closely the English Church; and we should insist on our members being more American. Another thing which separates us is our preposterous claims. It is because of our im udent impotence and impotent impudence that we are separated from the people of America. Again another reason for our smallness is because we separate ourselves from other Churches. We must understand that "the American Church" consists of all the Christian Churches of America. If we expect other Churches to unite with us, we must abandon our nonsensical theory of Apostolic succession. Let us stand for liberty, and call ourselves a Church of Christ, and not "the Church." I quarrel with none who are opposed to me in their belief, but when it comes to putting it into the name of the Church it is going too far.—N. Y. Independent.

—The case of forgery charged against Mr. Thos. King, and referred to in these columns a few weeks ago was tried before Judge Richardson at Regina on Tuesday last, and the decision of the magistrates continued. When the case was brought before the local magistrates they dismissed it, and the prosecution not being satisfied with that, had the case tried before the supreme court, when Mr. King was acquitted, the case not being allowed even to go to the jury. It is evident that the prosecution was a malicious one and the Crown was put to hundreds of dollars of expense to gratify personal spite.

To Relieve the Suffering.

"The success ful firm known as the Starr Kidney Pad Company, of Toronto, are about to introduce their old efficacious and reliable preparations in the counties about this province. They manufacture Dr. Starr's Kidney Pad for lame, weak and sore backs, which have been sold long and extensively throughout Manitoba, Ontario, the lower provinces and in England. The cures effected by these pads are said to be marvelous, in relieving and curing those—said to be incurable—diseases known as diseases of Artist and Bright's disease cases of the kidneys. A leading eastern M.P. says these pads are certainly the best remedy ever tried in his locality for kidney or urinary diseases. These kidney pads ought to have a large sale in this province, as there are many miners, fishermen and railroad navvies afflicted with kidney disorders, to say nothing of its prevalence among other classes of our people. The same company also manufacture numerous other medicines for the cure of other of the many ills which flesh is heir to. A general agent will be appointed for the province.
